

MENINGITIS

Results from an inflammation of the meninges — the protective layers of membranes surrounding the brain and spinal cord.

CAUSE

An infection of the fluid surrounding the brain and spinal cord.

SYMPTOMS

Headache, stiff neck, nausea, vomiting and sensitivity to light.

